

Collective Worship

This week's theme: Lest we forget...Remembrance

The Bible tells us:

Inspirational quote:

Thought for the week

Remembrance is a time when we reflect on the sacrifices that have been made for us; a time when we show love and compassion for the losses that have been and are still suffered today in the fight for freedom.

What will you reflect on or remember this week?

This week

This week in collective worship we have been reflecting on the importance of remembrance.

On Tuesday this was focused on remembering the importance of respecting our protected characteristics in the fight for equality. Our School Ambassadors led a fantastic and informative collective worship to educate us about this. We were reminded that Nelson Mandela said "No one is born hating another person because of the colour of his skin, or his background, or his religion. People must learn to hate, and if they can learn to hate, they can be taught to love, for love comes more naturally to the human heart than its opposite."

Vicar Suzanne led a very special Remembrance Collective Worship where we heard the story of RAF pilot Trevor Edwards and the barriers that he had to overcome. We reflected on the walls that we build and how we can break down these walls and build bridges to enable us to make connections between each other.

In class collective worship we created our Remembrance Wreaths by remembering those who have fought and still fight today for freedom and justice.

Our differences should not divide us; they should be celebrated. At a time when there seems to be so much conflict in the world, we pray for peace. Help us to be the peacemakers in the world and to do what we can to fight injustice and make the world a fairer place to live.
